Centennial book author to visit Touchmark

Edmond, Okla. — The official photographer of the Oklahoma Centennial will be discussing his 288-page photographic book and its inception when he visits Touchmark at Coffee Creek, the active adult community in north Edmond. The public is invited to Mike Klemme's presentation Nov. 26 at 2 p.m.

There is no charge for the event, which will be held at 2801 Shortgrass Road.

Celebrating Oklahoma! uses spectacular photography, facts and the perspectives of nearly 50 famous Oklahomans to illustrate the character, grace and style defining Oklahoma in its 100th year. Copies of the book will be available for purchase/signing at Klemme's appearance.

An official project of the Oklahoma Centennial, it is the first in a series of products produced by the Oklahoma Centennial Photographic Survey.

More than 400 photographs depict Oklahoma's land, arts, economy, communities, people and leisure pursuits. The photographs were selected from approximately 20,000 images Klemme captured during a 20-month journey across every county in the state.

James Garner, Troy Aikman, Roy Clark, David Boren, Frank Keating, General Tommy Franks, Bob Stoops, Eddie Sutton, Hanson and Miss America Jennifer Berry are just a few of the famous entertainers, athletes, astronauts and public servants who have added their personal memories and perspectives to the book.

Klemme has spent the past 20 years photographing resorts, golf courses, architecture and communities around the world. He has traveled more than four million miles and explored 2,000 beautiful destinations in nearly 50 countries. His photographs have appeared in Sports Illustrated, Forbes, Cigar Aficionado, The Wall Street Journal, Golf magazine, Golf Digest and Business Week, among others.

Touchmark at Coffee Creek offers a wide range of homes and lifestyle options. The active adult community is located just north of Covell Road between Broadway and Kelly.
